How can I use it for Verifying the authenticity of a Mobile Number for User Registrations?

Once user completed the registration process just display your Missed Call Number and tell your customer to just place a missed call from their registered number, the moment calls arrives on your number we will push the information's to your Web Server/Application/Software